Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you,

An Unfair Campaign.

The gathering of Folk Democrats in St. Louis Saturday was a record breaker. Politics in Missouri never before witnessed such a spectacle. In the midst of a severe winter storm three hundred and fifty men left their homes and many traveled two hundred to three miles to attend a preliminary political gathering, and they had to foot their own expenses. These men were not seeking the office for themselves, nor were they professional politicians. — Shelbina Torchlight.

Now Brother Jewett be fair with your farmer friends who read the Democrat, and also be fair to other reputable citizens and good Democrats who are candidates for Governor.

Is it true that the attendants, all of them, at the Folk meeting in St.
Louis, braved the severe winter storm and traveled, some of them, two hundred and three hundred miles, paying their own railroad fare to be present at the preliminary political gathering?

If it is true, they are to be commended.

But is it true?
If it is not true, then your article is calculated to deceive the people who want to know and ought to know the facts.

The Journal has not been hunting for particulars concerning the kind of transportation used by the delegates to the Folk gathering, but it just stumbled onto some information that may be news to you.

The Journal has it from an absolutely reliable source that a delegation of thirteen from one county was furnished transportation—railroad pass for that number. The pass was sent to the leader of the delegation. This delegation traveled from a distant part of the State—two or three hundred miles.
Now why should partiality be shown this delegation?

Brother Jewett also asserts that politicians were not in evidence.
Let's see just for the information of the farmers who read Mr.
Jewett's paper.

Brother Jewett was there himself, and he has considerable reputation as a politician. Then how about Riley Hall? Col. O. D. Gray was conspicuous; Ex-Governor Stephens was one of the vice presidents; James W. Mytton, of St. Joseph, was active. What's the matter with Mytton as a politician? Then there was Dr. Allen of Liberty, of State fame as a statesman. Col.
Robert H. Kern was there. When did Col. Kern, retire from politics?
W. L. Watkins, of Chillicothe, H.
J. Wigginton, of Linneus, and R.
C. Clark, of Fayette, were on the ground.

Then what about Jack Stark, of Cooper county, ex-warden of the penitentiary.

What about James L. Carlisle, ex-postmaster of St. Louis, under Cleveland?

What about James T. Montgomery of Sedalia?

What about Omer H. Avery, of Troy?

What about Judge W. N. Evans, of West Plains?

What about Paul B. Moore, of Charleston, ex-private secretary of Governor Stephens?

What about H. H. Hohenschild, ex-State Senator of Rolla?

What about W. H. Kennan, of Mexico?

It would be difficult to put your finger on a name in the list that does not represent a politician.

Will Mr. Jewett print a list of the real farmers who attended the meeting?

Politicians—well known and active politicians—absolutely controlled the Folk gathering in St.
Louis.

Why deceive the people who were not there and who must accept newspaper reports as true?

Such a campaign is unfair.

Why is it necessary to print and distribute misleading matter?

Why say that Folk delegates paid their railroad fare when it is known that some of them, at least, were provided with passes?

Why claim that no politicians were in the Folk gathering when the meeting was made up almost exclusively of politicians?

As Democrats let us be fair in this preliminary scramble as we have always been in the past.
Let us be fair to the State in which we live, fair to the party to which we belong and fair to honorable members of the party seeking party honors.

The best man will and should win the nomination for Governor.
But a few politicians in a meeting in St. Louis or Kansas City, months in advance of the convention, ought not to expect to name the man without referring the matter to the people.

It has been customary for all time in Missouri for candidates for Governor to contest in the open for the honor before the people in the various counties. Let that plan go undisturbed and stop all this nonsensical crimination and recrimination, organizing factions and branding the State as a den of corruptionists.

Let Mr. Folk and Mr. Reed, Judge Gantt and Mr. Hawes go out and let the people measure them as gubernatorial timber.

Why cannot the people be trusted in this campaign? Why shall not the candidates be given time, all of them, to go into the counties and present their claims?

As the Journal has previously said, it is more interested in the success of the Democratic party than in any one man.—Hannibal Journal.

Obituary.

Eva Liggett was born in Iron county, Mo., March 7, 1864, and died at Graniteville, Mo., Jan. 12, 1904, aged 39 years, 10 months and 9 days. She was married to William P. Hall September 18, 1884.
To this union twelve children were born, eleven of which remain to mourn her absence. She was converted about fifteen years ago, and united with the Baptist church, of which she remained a member until her death. The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church by Rev. T. G. Peterson, of Ironton. The remains were taken to Middlebrook and laid away in that beautiful little cemetery, to await the resurrection morn. P.

EDITED BY THE L. C. CLUB.

John Schwab, Jr., called at Club headquarters. He also visited the Imperial Theater and attended the Corner." John is looking well, and quite a reception took place after the performance. It has been fully a year since John has been guns to form a portion of the outside exhibit of the United States government, at the Fair, reached commenced.

Mr. Michael Stiefelman has returned from Chicago, where he attended the national convention of the Sons of Zion. The St. Louis delegates, including Mr. Stiefelman, strongly urged the association to name St. Louis as the place of its next meeting. The matter was left to a committee which is favorable to St. Louis, and there is very little doubt that the World's Fair city will be chosen.

Ernest G. Woodward, Traveling Passenger Agent of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis R'y., has written to the Department of Publicity that about sixty people from Nebraska will pass through St.
Louis next week on their way to Florida. The party will visit the Exposition grounds.

The executive committee of the National Editorial Association will meet in St. Louis January 27th to make arrangements for the next annual meeting of the association, which will be held in this city during the World's Press Parliament.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe and the source from which all good comes, to remove from our midst our beloved brother, John G. Yount, of Ironton Camp, No. 3755, be it Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the family who mourn his loss. "He is not dead, but sleepeth." So live that you will meet him who has gone before, and awaits you with outstretched arms upon that bright shore; for when the soft zephyrs play among the branches they bud forth again, and in place of death there will be life, beauty and joy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved wife, and a copy to the Iron County Register for publication, and that they be spread upon a page of the Lodge records, and the Charter of the Lodge be draped in mourn-

Obituary.

On January 6th, Mrs. Margaret Imboden, wife of Wm. Imboden, who resides near Brule, departed this life. She was born in Augusta county, Virginia, April 21, 1834, and was a daughter of Dabney and Catherine Shelton, both long since deceased. On August 13, 1857, she was married to her now believed husband. Four children survive; two sons and two daughters.

About forty-seven years ago she professed faith in her Savior and identified herself with the Methodist Church. Her life has been one of beautiful consistency; her neighbors testifying that her life was one of almost faultless conduct and faithful service.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer at the family residence, where she died; after which a large concourse of sorrowing kindred and friends followed the mortal remains, which were conveyed for interment to the Presbyterian cemetery at Caledonia. "The righteous shall be held in everlasting remembrance."
